the Assistant Silk controllers under the Silk Control Order 1943 for exercising these powers:—

1. Under Section 3 (v) in respect of Government Silk Depots, they will be the Officers-in-charge of the Silk Depots and shall be responsible for the correct maintenance of accounts for receipt and disposal of silk and for the proper administration of their depots.

2. Under Section 3 (vii) they will act as Chairmen of Committees for classification and grading of silk received in their depots.

3. Under Section 3 (ix) they will act as Auctioning Officers in respect of auctions held in their depots in the absence of the Controller or the Deputy Controller.

4. They will exercise powers relating to the inspection of stocks and accounts under Sections 9 and 10.

5. Under Section 11 they will be the investigation Officers in their respective jurisdiction, in case of violation of the Silk Control Order, 1943.

6. For administrative purposes of the Silk Control Order, the jurisdictions now fixed for the Assistant Cocoon Controllers, under the Cocoon Control Order, will continue in force except in the case of jurisdictions of the depots, which have been notified separately.

7. The Deputy Silk Controller will be in charge of the depot at Bangalore with jurisdiction already notified. He will be responsible for the receipt and disposal of silk in this depot and will act as Chairman of the Committee for classification and grading of silk. All other powers under Sections 9, 10 and 11 will be exercised by the Assistant Silk Controllers at Channapatna in the areas allotted as jurisdiction to the Bangalore Depot and falling within their jurisdiction to Bangalore Depot and falling within their jurisdiction as already fixed under the Cocoon Control Order.
